Our mission is to improve the quality of life for individuals on local, national and international levels by sharing and disseminating vital information, improving collaborations and networking, conducting research and trainings, assisting with direct professional services, program evaluation, and consulting to promote violence-free living.

Aloha,

The Institute on Violence, Abuse and Trauma (IVAT), has the pleasure to invite you to participate in the upcoming 21st Hawai'i International Summit on Preventing, Assessing & Treating Trauma Across the Lifespan, and the theme is Cultivating Healing and Nurturing Connections: Caring for the Earth and Personal Wellness. We are pleased to host this Summit at the Hawai'i Convention Center, Honolulu, and look forward to your joining us, hopefully as an integral part of our efforts to surpass the successes of previous years.

We welcome participation and support from sponsors, exhibitors, collaborating organizations, advertisers, and vendors. The materials attached to this prospectus contain information about exhibitors. IVAT has enjoyed solid community and corporate support over the years and we are grateful for your consideration of the various opportunities available to support our continued work to end interpersonal violence.

This year, we are again focusing on domestic violence, child abuse, adverse childhood experiences, children exposed to violence, at risk youth, criminal justice issues, sexual assault, unserved and underserved populations, elder abuse, human trafficking, treatment of victims and offenders, trauma-informed care, substance abuse, prevention efforts and more. We have added a new track that will focus on grief, loss, and healing after disaster trauma.

Mutually beneficial reasons to consider becoming an active supporter of the Summit include:

- Increased exposure on an international level through placement of your organization's information on our website, social networking sites, in the program and promotions.
- Identification with IVAT in the global efforts against violence, abuse and trauma.
- Access to local, regional, national and global resources in the promotion of peace movement.
- Networking opportunities at the upper levels of international collaboration of public and private organizations, individuals, policy makers and government officials.

Please review the forms in this prospectus. We welcome you to email completed documents to Sonora Eribez, Community Relations & Marketing Coordinator, at Sonora@ivatcenters.org. You may also mail the originals to IVAT, 10065 Old Grove Rd, Suite 101, San Diego, California 92131. Please feel free to contact us if you have questions at (858) 527-1860 ext. 4033.
